ADELAIDE HILLS | RIVERLAND | EYRE PENINSULA

Adelaide Hills Kaurna & Peramangk Country

Set in native bushland in picturesque Piccadilly – just 25 minutes from the city - Woodhouse offers five unique accommodation options ranging from a stately two-storey mansion for special occasions to small, rustic chalets for family escapes; a purpose-built training and conference centre that sleeps 80 and space for camping (and even affordable family-friendly glamping) as far as the eye can see.

Outdoor adventurous activities complete the Woodhouse experience, with unlimited access included in your day, camping or accommodation fee.

Activities include an obstacle course, waterless waterslides (weekends only), disc golf, multi-dimensional bouldering wall, giant split-level maze, orienteering and more!

While exploring the 54-hectare property, you'll also find basecamps (positioned in prime camping locations) with toilets, hot showers, undercover dining, sinks and BBQ facilities, as well as shared campfire circles (seasonal).

Riverland Ngaiawang Country

Nestled on the tranquil banks of the River Murray near Blanchetown, about an hour and forty minutes north-east of Adelaide, the 24-acre property sits on the fringe of the Dark Sky Reserve and offers some pretty spectacular star-gazing!

With bunk accommodation, camping, caravan sites, launching facility and kitchens, Roonka is an oasis for families and friends looking to disconnect to reconnect, and offers a wide range of water and land-based activities. Highlights include the waterslide into the river, Echidna Nature Trail and the flying fox over the private billabong. Canoes and kayaks are also available for hire!

Eyre Peninsula Nauo Country

Just 20 minutes from beautiful Coffin Bay, and 40 minutes from Port Lincoln, Nyroca offers bunkhouse accommodation with private kitchen, recreation and dining, as well as powered and unpowered camping sites with shared access to camp kitchen, laundry, BBQs and bathroom facilities.

Surrounded by century-old gums, the property has a natural bush setting, with Marble Range as its backdrop. Stunning beaches are just 20 minutes to the west, so while coastal experiences are within easy reach, the site is well protected from sand and winds. Plus there are flushing toilets and hot showers!

A spacious Recreation Hall provides table tennis, sporting equipment and orienteering maps to explore the 21-acre property.
